

Adult Sunday School at Grace United Methodist Church

Explorer's

The Explorer's Class has perhaps the most mature and wiser class members at Grace. We are willing to support and promote activities of the Church. This Class was started when the new church building was built at the present location.

Our current teachers are Anne Hillman, and her associate is Florence Hurcomb. The curriculum is selected from Cokesbury Methodist material and other well known Methodist authors. We are learning and growing, as much as our age will permit. If you are more mature and want to "know", join the Explorer's Class in Room 107 on Sunday's at 9:45 am.
